TRAVEL REQUEST INFORMATION

Dear Judge Munson:

On August 14, 2002, Libo Wang was sentenced to 18 months imprisonment followed by four years supervised release with conditions to include that she refrain from any and all alcoholic beverages, refrain from use or possession of illegal controlled substances, and submit to substance abuse treatment under the direction of the U.S. Probation Office. Ms. Wang was ordered to pay a fine of $500 and a special assessment fee of $100, which she satisfied on August 14, 2002.

On March 29, 2006, Ms. Wang submitted a request to travel to China to care for her mother, who is terminally ill. On April 25, 2006, she requested to delay her travel to June when she is scheduled to attend training in Hong Kong. However, on May 5, 2006, she learned that her mother took a turn for the worse and is expected to expire anytime.

Ms. Wang has resubmitted her travel request to leave for China to visit her mother. She is requesting to travel from May 9, 2006 to June 9, 2006. She will reside with her parents, Gou Zheng (father) and Gou Juan (mother) in the family residence in Baifan City, Liaoning Province in the People's Republic of China.

Ms. Wang paid her special assessment fee on August 14, 2002, and satisfied her fine in the amount of $500 on August 14, 2002. She completed the Substance Abuse Treatment Program without incident on September 8, 2006, and is compliant with her monthly supervision reports. She is employed
